Join LUK in celebrating 49 years of providing services to youth and their families in Central Massachusetts.

Food for Thought: Martin Luther King Day Service Project

LUK's Youth Development Services will be packaging books and snacks for their Food for Thought Service Project, honoring Martin Luther King's legacy. The books will feature themes of civic engagement, community service and volunteerism, respect, and equity. For more information, email YouthDevelopment@LUK.org.

Monday, January 21, 2019

Semi-Annual Blood Drives to Support the American Red Cross

Monday, January 28 and July 29, 2019

6th Annual Kids at Heart Mentoring Gala

Join us for live and silent auctions, raffles, dinner, and entertainment! This event supports LUK's Mentoring Program, which matches youth ages 6 to 17 with caring adult mentors. Tickets and bidding are available at www.501Auctions.com/LUKGala.

Thursday, February 14, 2019

Have-a-Heart Hockey Tournament

The annual Have-a-Heart tournament, in memory of Michelle "Shelley" L'Ecuyer, combines many things she loved in life: hockey, helping the community, and helping children. The tournament raises money for a scholarship fund which benefits youth participating in local hockey leagues.

Friday – Sunday, February 15-17, 2019

Youth Empowerment Summit (YES)

The purpose of YES is to celebrate and encourage youth volunteerism, youth empowerment, and youth leadership! The theme is "I Create My Future" and consists of workshops, a keynote speaker, and a panel of youth leaders who encourage students to make healthy decisions about the future, including career and education choices. For more information, email YouthSummit@LUK.org.

Thursday, April 4, 2019

Day in the Park and "Corduroy King" 5k

The Day in the Park is a fun day for families to enjoy kids' activities, a barbecue lunch, and information tables. The "Corduroy King" 5K raises money for the David "Corduroy King" Kilcome scholarship, which allows youth who would otherwise be unable to attend to participate in TREK programming. The 5K is a fun, flat course for walkers, runners, and strollers of all abilities. For more information, email 5K@LUK.org.

Sunday, May 5, 2019

Open House Career Fair

Are you interested in joining LUK's dynamic, caring team and doing good work in the community? Come to our Open House Career Fair to talk to current staff and human resources, learn more about the agency, and interview! For more information, email HR@LUK.org.

Tuesday, May 7, 2019

Common Ground Basketball Tournament

The 21st Annual Common Ground Basketball Tournament will be held at Green Street Park in Fitchburg. Join us for basketball, free lunch, music, and information tables. For more information, email YouthDevelopment@LUK.org.
